Wild Lavender - Pure Floral Single Note Soap

DESCRIPTION

Wild Lavender is lavender the way it grows on a sunbaked hillside — nothing added, nothing dressed up. One pure essential oil, one honest bar: soft, floral, herbal, and quietly powerful. For lavender lovers, this is the whole point.

We make it the old way: pure lavender essential oil in a rich plant-oil base, and none of the synthetic fragrance or harsh detergents that fill most shelves. Few plants have been trusted this long by this many — Egyptians used lavender in sacred preparations, Romans bathed in it (the name comes from the Latin lavare, to wash), medieval Europeans strewed it against illness, and Persian physicians prescribed it for the restless mind. Modern research keeps agreeing: lavender's linalool has been shown in clinical trials to calm the nervous system, ease anxiety, and deepen sleep. When four thousand years of bathers and healers keep reaching for the same flower, we pay attention.

Scent Profile:

- Wild Lavender — soft, floral, and herbaceous with a clean, slightly sweet finish; opens bright, settles into calm. A single note that needs no accompaniment.

This gentle bar surrounds you with the unhurried scent of a lavender field at dusk, while a base of ten plant oils and butters builds a rich, creamy lather that leaves skin soft, smooth, and lightly perfumed. Lovely for an evening wind-down, a morning reset, or anyone who believes one perfect note beats a crowded chord.

Benefits:

- A naturally calming, floral-herbal aroma trusted across four millennia
- Lavender's linalool is one of the most studied botanical calming compounds
- A simple, honest single-note ritual to help you unwind
- Rich, moisturizing lather from ten nourishing plant oils and butters
- A soft, lasting scent that lingers naturally on the skin

Key Features:

- Handcrafted in small batches
- Pure lavender essential oil — the only scent in the bar
- No harsh chemicals, parabens, or synthetic fragrances
- Approx. 4–5 oz bar

The All Naturals way: real essential oils and clean, simple ingredients — never synthetic fragrance. From Roman baths to Persian medicine to modern sleep research, lavender has never needed improving; we just keep it honest.
